We welcome you to St. John's Church. If you are new, please be sure to fill out a visitor card and place it in an offertory plate, and/or sign one of the guest registers in the narthex at the back of the church. We are glad you are here and hope that you will join us for fellowship and refreshments in the undercroft below the nave (general seating area) of the church. If you have questions, please feel free to speak to any parishioner and they will happily provide you with whatever assistance you may require.

The Offertory Anthem: The Pharisee and the publican – Heinrich Schütz
There were two men that went up to pray in the temple: One of them was a Pharisee, the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed within himself. And the publican, standing afar off would not so much as lift his eyes to heaven; but he smote upon his breast and they spake thus:
I give thanks to thee, God, that I am not as other men are... God, be merciful...
I thank thee, O God... Merciful to me, a sinner!
That I am not as other men are, unjust... God, I am sinful...
Extortioners... Be thou merciful to me.
Or even as this publican. Have mercy on a sinner!
In every week I fast on two days... God, have mercy on me!
And of all that I possess I give the tenth part. Mercy on me, a sinner.
I say to you: This man went from thence, went down justified to his house, rather than the other. He that himself exalteth, he shall abased be. And he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
